APPEAL 22R-UI-13433-AW-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/21/21
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Eligibility – A&A – Able to, available for, work search

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the January 3, 2022 (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits finding claimant voluntarily quit on September 29, 2021 because she was dissatisfied with work conditions. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was scheduled for March 7, 2022. No hearing was held because the appellant failed to call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time of the hearing. On March 17, 2022, a default decision was issued dismissing the appeal.

Claimant appealed to the Employment Appeal Board (EAB). On May 27, 2022, the EAB remanded this matter to the Appeals Bureau for a hearing on the merits. Upon remand, due notice was issued and a hearing was held on July 20, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Ryan Kasperbauer, General Manager. No exhibits were admitted.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant's separation was a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to employer.
Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant was employed as a part-time General Laborer from August 3, 2021 until her employment with A & M Services (a laundry) ended on September 29, 2021 when claimant quit effective immediately. Other employees pushed laundry bins into claimant while working. Claimant informed employer of the issue but did not report any injuries sustained by laundry carts. Employer investigated the issue and determined that claimant was also pushing laundry bins into the other employees. Claimant has a medical condition that makes her prone to anger and irritability when working with other people. Claimant quit her employment on September 29, 2021 because her coworkers were irritating her.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) provides: An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, if the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W. 2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992).

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). The standard of what a reasonable person would have believed under the circumstances is applied in determining whether a claimant left work voluntarily with good cause attributable to the employer. O'Brien v. Employment Appeal Bd., 494 N.W.2d 660 (Iowa 1993).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(6) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(6) The claimant left as a result of an inability to work with other employees.

Claimant's verbal resignation is both evidence of her intention to sever the employment relationship and an overt act of carrying out her intention. Claimant voluntarily quit her employment. The reason claimant quit can best be described as an inability to work with other employees. The coworkers' behavior that led to claimant's resignation would not cause the average person to quit. Claimant has not established that she quit for good cause attributable to employer. Benefits are denied.

Because claimant's separation was disqualifying, the issue of whether claimant is able to and available for work is moot.

DECISION:

The January 3, 2022 (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to employer. Benefits are denied until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible. The issue of whether claimant was able to and available for work is moot.
