APPEAL NO: 17A-UI-09463-JCT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 08/20/17
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

An appeal was filed by the claimant from an unemployment insurance decision dated September 6, 2017, (reference 01) that denied benefits. Notice of the hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 8:00.m. on October 2, 2017. A review of the Appeals Bureau's conference call system after 8:27 a.m. the same day, shows the claimant/appellant failed to respond when called for the scheduled hearing.

The claimant registered a phone number at 8:12 a.m. on October 2, 2017, for the hearing scheduled at 8:00 a.m. Five attempts were made to contact the claimant at the phone number he registered and each time, there was no answer or opportunity to leave a voicemail. An additional fifteen minute grace period was extended to the claimant to contact the Appeals Bureau when he did not receive an anticipated phone call, before the record was closed. No hearing was held.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed based upon the appellant not being available to participate in the scheduled hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. The appellant, Daniel P. Heindl, failed to respond to the hearing notice instruction prior to the hearing and provide a telephone number at which he could be reached, nor did he request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice. When he did furnish a phone number twelve minutes after the start time of the hearing, he was unavailable when repeatedly called. Five attempts were made to contact him.

The hearing notice instruction specifically advised the parties:

Date: MON OCT 02, 2017
Iowa Time: 8:00 a.m.

You must register for the hearing immediately!

You must register your phone number and the name(s) and phone number(s) of any witness(es) with the Appeals Bureau. If you do not register, the judge will not be able to call you or your witness(es) for the hearing.

The back page of the hearing notice also advised the parties:

FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE

If you do not participate in the hearing, the judge may dismiss the appeal or issue a decision without considering your evidence or witness(es).

The agency's decision concluded that the claimant was disqualified for unemployment insurance benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedure Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a hearing after proper service of notice, the judge may enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. The statute further states that if a party makes a timely request to vacate the decision and shows good cause for failing to appear, the judge shall vacate the decision and conduct another hearing.

Agency rule Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) provides that if the appealing party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the Appeals Bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the judge may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code § 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing and shows good cause for reopening the hearing. The rule further states that failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing is not good cause for reopening the record. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7)c. (Emphasis added.)

The appellant, Daniel P. Heindl, appealed the unemployment insurance decision but failed to be available to participate in the scheduled hearing. The appellant has therefore defaulted on his appeal pursuant to Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.14(7), and the decision remains in force and effect.

If the appellant disagrees with this decision, a written request to reopen the record must be made to the administrative law judge within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the end of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the appellant from participating in the hearing at the scheduled time.

DECISION:

The appellant is in default and the appeal is dismissed. The unemployment insurance decision dated September 6, 2017, (reference 01) denying benefits remains in effect.
