ENGINEERED PLASTIC COMPONENTS INC
Employer

APPEAL NO: 20A-UI-08028-JTT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 12/15/19
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able & Available
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Katrina Knott, filed a timely appeal from the July 2, 2020, reference 03, decision that denied benefits for the period of May 24, 2020 through June 13, 2020, based on the deputy's conclusion that Ms. Knott was unavailable to work the major portion of the week due to personal reasons and obligations. A notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 3:35 p.m. on September 1, 2020. The hearing in this matter was consolidated with the hearing in Appeal Number 20A-UI-08027-JTT. The employer registered a telephone number for the hearing and was available through Angela Janecek. A review of the Appeals Bureau's conference call system indicates that the claimant/appellant, Ms. Knott, failed to respond to the hearing notice instructions to register a telephone number at which she could be reached for the hearing. Based upon the claimant/appellant's failure to participate in the hearing and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed based upon the claimant/appellant not participating in the hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant, Katrina Knott, is the appellant in this matter and in a companion appeal number. The claimant was properly notified of the appeal hearing set for 3:35 p.m. on September 1, 2020 through the hearing notice that was mailed to her last-known address of record on August 20, 2020. Because there were two appeal numbers set for a consolidated hearing, the Appeals Bureau mailed two hearing notices to Ms. Knott regarding the same consolidated hearing. The claimant did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice. The claimant did not comply with the hearing notice instructions to register a telephone number at which she could be reached for the hearing. The claimant did not provide a telephone number in her appeal. The claimant has not provided the Appeals Bureau with a telephone number since filing the appeal.

The July 2, 2020, reference 03, decision denied benefits for the period of May 24, 2020 through June 13, 2020, based on the deputy's conclusion that Ms. Knott was unavailable to work the major portion of the week due to personal reasons and obligations.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-26.14(7) provides:

(7) If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provide in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing in writing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party.

c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

The claimant/appellant appealed the representative's decision but failed to participate in the hearing. The claimant/appellant has therefore defaulted on her appeal pursuant to Iowa Code §17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.14(7), and the representative's decision remains in force and effect.

DECISION:

The claimant defaulted on her appeal. The appeal is dismissed. The July 2, 2020, reference 03, decision that denied benefits for the period of May 24, 2020 through June 13, 2020, based on the deputy's conclusion that the claimant was unavailable to work the major portion of the week due to personal reasons and obligations, remains in effect.

Note to Claimant: This decision determines you are not eligible for regular unemployment insurance benefits. If you disagree with this decision, you may file an appeal to the Employment Appeal Board by following the instructions on the first page of this decision. If this decision becomes final or if you are not eligible for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA), you may have an overpayment of benefits that you will be required to repay. Individuals who do not qualify for regular unemployment insurance benefits, but who are currently unemployed for reasons related to COVID-19 may qualify for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA). You will need to apply for PUA to determine your eligibility under the program. Additional information on how to apply for PUA can be found at <https://www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/pua-information>.
