Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(4) – Intolerable working conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Packer Glade, filed an appeal from the September 21, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon his voluntary resignation. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on October 11, 2023 at 1:00 p.m. The claimant participated and testified. The employer participated through Senior Payroll Manager Mary Huffer.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct or voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant was employed full-time as an assembler at the site employer, Polaris, from March 20, 2023, until his employment ended on July 21, 2023, when he quit to take a position with Polaris. The claimant began working for Polaris on July 23, 2023.

The claimant filed the weekly claim that he did because the Polaris plant was shut down for that one week.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left his employment to accept employment elsewhere. Benefits are granted. The employer will not be charged, rather benefits will be paid by the Iowa Unemployment Compensation Fund.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalifications and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. The employment does not have to be covered employment and does not include self-employment.

Even though the separation was without good cause attributable to the employer and would, standing alone, disqualify the claimant from receiving benefits, the claimant did leave in order to accept other employment and did perform services for the subsequent employer. Accordingly, benefits are allowed and the account of the employer shall not be charged. Benefits will be paid by the Iowa Unemployment Compensation Fund.

DECISION:

The September 21, 2023, (reference 01), decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant voluntarily left employment in order to accept other employment. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible. The account of the employer (account number #351435-000) shall not be charged. The benefits will be paid by to the Iowa Unemployment Compensation Fund.
