Claimant

APPEAL NO. 24A-UI-00742-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CATFISH BEND CASINOS II LLC
Employer

OC: 12/24/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated January 17, 2024, (reference 01) which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on February 5, 2024. Claimant participated personally. Employer participated by Dave Guzman. Employer's Exhibits 1-2 and Claimant's exhibit A were admitted into evidence.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer?

Whether claimant is able and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on October 12, 2023. After that date, claimant was on an eight week pregnancy leave.

Employer reached out to claimant two weeks prior to the end of her pregnancy leave. Claimant indicated that she was not going to return to work at the end of her leave as she was not producing enough breast milk. Employer stated that claimant needed to return to work in two weeks, and claimant did not request any extended period, but rather just stated that she was not going to be able to swing a return to the casino.

Claimant did not visit a doctor and did not have any medical support behind her statement. Claimant further stated that she believed that her wages would be reduced if she were to return to work. Employer denied that this would be the case.

Claimant stated that she became able and available to return to work at the end of 2023, but did not wish to return to Catfish Bend.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

The administrative law judge holds that claimant did voluntarily quit her job with employer when she chose not to return to her job following the end of her leave of absence. Claimant did not show any medical reason why she was not able to return to work, nor did claimant ask for any specific period of time to allow for a complete recovery to allow return to work. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated January 17, 2024, reference 01, is affirmed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
