OC: 10/08/17
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The YMCA of Blackhawk County filed an appeal from a representative's decision dated October 27, 2017, reference 05, which allowed benefits and held that the protest concerning the claimant's separation from work on March 27, 2017 was not timely filed. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was on November 16, 2017. Although duly notified, the claimant did not participate. The employer participated by Ms. Lucinda Mohr, Executive Director and Ms. Cyndi Ritter, Youth and Family Services Director.

ISSUE:

At issue in this matter is whether the employer filed a timely protest as required by law.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant's notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on October 13, 2017, and received by the employer within ten days. The notice of claim contained a warning that any protest must be postmarked or returned not later than ten days from the initial mailing date. The employer did not effect a protest until October 24, 2017, which is after the ten-day period had expired.

The employer's executive director has received the notice of claim filed and had noted its due date. The executive director intended to file a protest on the claim, but was absent due to illness on October 23, 2017, the date that the protest was to have been returned by. The employer made no arrangements to have other personnel submit the protest in Ms. Mohr's absence.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979).

The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of the court in the decision to be controlling on this portion of the same lowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed. The employer has not shown any good cause for not complying with the jurisdictional time limit. Therefore, the administrative law judge is without jurisdiction to entertain any protest regarding the separation from employment.

The administrative law judge concludes the employer failed to effect a timely protest within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law, and the delay was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to 871 IAC 24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the employer failed to effect a timely protest pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.6-2, and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the claimant's separation of employment. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979) and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company v. Employment Appeal Board, 465 N.W.2d 674 (Iowa App. 1990).

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated October 27, 2017, reference 05, is affirmed. The employer has failed to file a timely protest, and the decision of the representative shall stand and remain in full force and effect. Benefits are allowed, provided Briranda J. Griffin satisfies all other conditions of eligibility.
