ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 09/25/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code 871-24.26(4) – Intolerable Work Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated October 11, 2022, (reference 01) that held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on December 7, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Ellen Rockne, Chief Executive Officer. Claimant's Exhibits A1-B1 were admitted into evidence. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record including the fact-finding documents.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on or about September 15, 2022. Claimant left the employment on that date because her employment had become intolerable.

Claimant began working for employer as a full-time employee on April 12, 2019. Claimant's father also worked for the employer, and they worked together at the business. Claimant received on the job training at the time of hire.

On or about September 15, 2022 claimant and her father met with Ms. Rockne. Ms. Rockne and claimant's father had been involved in a romantic relationship which had recently ended. During that conversation Ms. Rockne became upset and started raising her voice. Ms. Rockne made claimant feel very uncomfortable, and claimant wanted to leave the business to avoid any further confrontation. Ms. Rockne chased after claimant as she was leaving the building and began yelling at her. Ms. Rockne yelled at claimant and said, "you will have a small and sad life because you chose your dad over me".

Claimant felt scared and unwelcome at her employment after her interaction with Ms. Rockne on September 15, 2022. She had also had a unpleasant confrontation with Ms. Rockne's sons at work on September 14, 2022. During that conversation Ms. Rockne's sons told claimant that she was an accomplice in her dad's malfeasance, and they called her father a thief and a liar.

After her interaction with Ms. Rockne on September 15, 2022 and Ms. Rockne's sons on September 14, 2022 claimant felt scared, and harassed at work. Claimant realized that her environment had become intolerable, and she had to leave the employment for her own safety. Claimant left the employment on that date and did not return.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has established that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because her work environment had become intolerable.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(4) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant left due to intolerable or detrimental working conditions.

It is the duty of the administrative law judge as the trier of fact in this case, to determine the credibility of witnesses, weigh the evidence and decide the facts in issue. Arndt v. City of LeClaire, 728 N.W.2d 389, 394-395 (Iowa 2007). The administrative law judge may believe all, part or none of any witness's testimony. State v. Holtz, 548 N.W.2d 162, 163 (Iowa App. 1996). In assessing the credibility of witnesses, the administrative law judge should consider the evidence using his or her own observations, common sense and experience. Id. In determining the facts, and deciding what testimony to believe, the fact finder may consider the following factors: whether the testimony is reasonable and consistent with other believable evidence; whether a witness has made inconsistent statements; the witness's appearance, conduct, age, intelligence, memory and knowledge of the facts; and the witness's interest in the trial, their motive, candor, bias and prejudice. Id.

A notice of an intent to quit had been required by Cobb v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 506 N.W.2d 445, 447-78 (Iowa 1993), Suluki v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 503 N.W.2d 402, 405 (Iowa 1993), and Swanson v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 554 N.W.2d 294, 296 (Iowa Ct. App. 1996). Those cases required an employee to give an employer notice of intent to quit, thus giving the employer an opportunity to cure working conditions. However, in 1995, the Iowa Administrative Code was amended to include an intent-to-quit requirement. The requirement was only added to rule 871-24.26(6)(b), the provision addressing work-related health problems. No intent-to-quit requirement was added to rule 871-24.26(4), the intolerable working conditions provision. Our supreme court concluded that, because the intent-to-quit requirement was added to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(6)(b) but not 871-24.26(4), notice of intent to quit is not required for intolerable working conditions. Hy-Vee, Inc. v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 710 N.W.2d 1 (Iowa 2005).

Claimant left the employment because her work environment was intolerable, her separation from employment was for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated October 11, 2022, (reference 01) is reversed. Unemployment insurance benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
