Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
49 CFR 40.321 – Sealed Record Confidential Information

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the November 3, 2009 (reference 04) decision that denied benefits. From the administrative record it appears that since the September 28, 2008 claim for benefits resulting from the temporary medical separation and ability to and availability for work issue was resolved, either no notification was made to the Claims Division of Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) that the separation had become permanent due to an allegation of misconduct or the issue was not noticed until a new claim was filed effective September 28, 2009. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was held on Saturday, December 12, 2009. Claimant participated and was represented by counsel.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether claimant was discharged for reasons related to job misconduct sufficient to warrant a denial of benefits and if the hearing record and decision shall be publicly disclosed.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The overpayment issue in this case was created by a disqualification decision that has now been affirmed. Employer participated in the fact-finding interview. Claimant did receive benefits in the amount of $14,894.17.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes claimant has been overpaid benefits for the period in question.

Iowa Code § 96.3-7, as amended in 2008, provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.
 - a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment. The employer shall not be charged with the benefits.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this state pursuant to section 602.10101.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $14,894.17 pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.3(7) as the employer participated in the fact-finding interview and the disqualification decision that created the overpayment decision has now been affirmed.

The second issue in this case is the effect of the confidentiality requirements of the federal law. The Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991 authorized the United States Department of Transportation (DOT) to prescribe regulations for testing of commercial motor vehicle operators. 49 USC § 31306. Congress required that the regulations provide for "the confidentiality of test results and medical information" of employees tested under the law. 49 USC § 31306(c)(7). Pursuant to this grant of rulemaking authority, the DOT established confidentiality provisions in 49 CFR 40.321 that prohibit the release of individual test results or medical information about an employee to third parties without the employee's written consent. There is an exception, however, to that rule for administrative proceedings (e.g. unemployment compensation hearing) involving an employee who has tested positive under a DOT drug or alcohol test. 49 CFR 40.323(a)(1). The exception allows an employer to release the information to the decision maker in such a proceeding, provided the decision maker issues a binding stipulation that the information released will only be made available to the parties to the proceeding. 49 CFR 40.323(b). Although the employer did not request such a stipulation before the hearing, I conclude that this does cause the information to be excluded from the hearing record. In the statement of the case, a stipulation in compliance with the regulation has been entered, which corrects the failure of the employer to obtain the stipulation before submitting the information to the appeals bureau.

This federal confidentiality provision must be followed despite conflicting provisions of the Iowa Open Records Act (Iowa Code chapter 22), the Iowa Administrative Procedure Act (APA) (Iowa Code chapter 17A), and Iowa Employment Security Law (Iowa Code chapter 96). Iowa Code § 22.2(1) provides: "Every person shall have the right to examine and copy a public record and to publish or otherwise disseminate a public record or the information contained in a public record." The exhibits, decision, and audio recording in an unemployment insurance case would meet the definition of "public record" under Iowa Code § 22.1-3. Iowa Code § 17A.12(7) provides that contested case hearings "shall be open to the public." Under Iowa Code § 96.6(3), unemployment insurance appeals hearings are to be conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A. The unemployment insurance rules provide that copies of all presiding officer decisions shall be kept on file for public inspection at the administrative office of the department of workforce development. 871 IAC 26.17(3).

The federal confidentiality laws regarding drug testing and medical information must be followed because, under the Supremacy Clause, U.S. Const., Art. VI, cl. 2, state laws that "interfere with, or are contrary to the laws of congress, made in pursuance of the constitution" are invalid. Wisconsin Public Intervenor v. Mortier, 501 U.S. 597, 604 (1991). One way that federal law may pre-empt state law is when state and federal law actually conflict. Such a conflict arises when "compliance with both federal and state regulations is a physical impossibility or when a state law "stands as an obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of the full purposes and objectives of Congress." Id. at 605. Although the general principle of confidentiality is set forth in a federal statute (49 USC § 31306(c)(7)), the specific implementing requirements are spelled out in the federal regulation (49 CFR 40.321). The United States Supreme Court has further ruled that "[f]ederal regulations have no less preemptive effect than federal statutes." Capital Cities Cable, Inc. v. Crisp, 467 U.S. 691, 699 (1984) (ruling that federal regulation of cable television pre-empted Oklahoma law restricting liquor advertising on cable television, and Oklahoma law conflicted with specific federal regulations and was an obstacle to Congress' objectives).

In this case, the Iowa Open Records law, APA, and Employment Security law actually conflict with the federal statute 49 USC § 31306(c)(7) and the implementing regulations 49 CFR 40.321 to the extent that they would require the release of individual test results or medical information about an employee to third parties beyond the claimant, employer, and the decision maker in this case. It would defeat the purpose of the federal law of providing confidentiality to permit the information regarding the test results to be disclosed to the general public. Therefore, the public decision in this case will be issued without identifying information. A decision with identifying information will be issued to the parties; but that decision, the audio record, and any documents in the administrative file (all of which contain confidential and identifying information) shall be sealed and not publicly disclosed.

DECISION:

The November 3, 2009 (reference 04) decision is affirmed. The claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $14,894.17.
