APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-09223-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

TYSON FRESH MEATS INC

Employer

OC: 08/27/23

Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated September 22, 2023, (reference 01) which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on October 16, 2023. Claimant participated and was represented by Jon Geyer. Employer failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on August 18, 2023. Claimant was deemed by employer to have quit work on August 30, 2023.

Claimant worked as a full time leg and rib cutter / trimmer. Claimant had a slip and fall accident while at work on or around October 22, 2021. As a result of this accident claimant was determined to have wrist / shoulder injuries.

In April of 2023 claimant reported having back problems from the movement or separation of pig carcasses in an injury report brought to Tyson. The report stated that claimant believed he developed lower back and shoulder pain two to three months ago. A July 26, 2023 primary health care letter stated that claimant would benefit if he were moved to a job where he did not have to be on his feet or sitting throughout the day.

Claimant argued that the injury to his back was cumulative, and his stopping work occurred as a result of employer not allowing claimant to switch positions to one that did not have the physical strain. Claimant stated he could have been moved to a position where he handed out gloves and did other duties.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

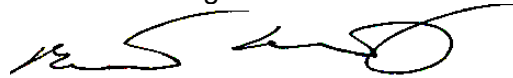

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because employer did not move claimant to a different position as requested by claimant and an occupational therapist. Claimant was not able to show how his back injury was linked to his work. Absent this link, employer was under no obligation to move claimant to a different position months after claimant was injured, and based on an assumption as to how the injury occurred.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated September 22, 2023, (reference 01) is affirmed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

Online: eab.iowa.gov

The appeal period will be extended to the next business day if the last day to appeal falls on a weekend or a legal holiday. There is no filing fee to file an appeal with the Employment Appeal Board.

AN APPEAL TO THE BOARD SHALL STATE CLEARLY:

- 1) The name, address, and social security number of the claimant.
- 2) A reference to the decision from which the appeal is taken.
- 3) That an appeal from such decision is being made and such appeal is signed.
- 4) The grounds upon which such appeal is based.

An Employment Appeal Board decision is final agency action. If a party disagrees with the Employment Appeal Board decision, they may file a petition for judicial review in district court.

2. If you do not file an appeal of the judge's decision with the Employment Appeal Board within fifteen (15) days, the decision becomes final agency action, and you have the option to file a petition for judicial review in District Court within thirty (30) days after the decision becomes final. Additional information on how to file a petition can be found at www.iowacourts.gov/efile. There may be a filing fee to file the petition in District Court.

Note to Parties: YOU MAY REPRESENT yourself in the appeal or obtain a lawyer or other interested party to do so provided there is no expense to Workforce Development. If you wish to be represented by a lawyer, you may obtain the services of either a private attorney or one whose services are paid for with public funds.

Note to Claimant: It is important that you file your weekly claim as directed, while this appeal is pending, to protect your continuing right to benefits.
