Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) - Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
PL 116-136 Sec. 2107 - Federal Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

May 3, 2022, Samuel Webb, Jr., claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the April 12, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision finding claimant was overpaid $2,239.00 in PEUC benefits for 12 weeks from 11/22/20 through 03/13/21 due to being eligible for benefits in South Dakota. After proper notice, a telephone hearing was conducted on June 21, 2022, at 11:05AM. The following hearings were held together as part of a consolidated hearing: Appeals 22A-UI-11687-DH-T; 22A-UI-11688-DH-T; and 22A-UI-11689-DH-T. Claimant participated personally. The Department did not participate. Judicial notice was taken of the administrative record and DBIN/1.

ISSUE:

Is the appeal timely?
Is claimant overpaid PEUC benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and reviewed the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds:

The unemployment insurance decision dated the April 7, 2021, (reference 01) that denied claimant PEUC benefits as of 11/22/20 was kept in effect in companion appeal 22A-UI-11687-DH-T as the appeal was untimely.

Claimant filed a new claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of March 15, 2020. Claimant filed for and exhausted his regular state funded benefits in Iowa effective the payment for the benefit week ending 11/21/2020 payment. Claimant then received Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) benefits beginning 11/22/20 through 03/13/21. Claimant filed weekly claims for this period. Claimant did not do anything differently in making his weekly claims to receive PEUC benefits. Claimant received $2,239.00 in PEUC benefits over this timeframe.

The appeal is from a decision dated April 12, 2022. It lists an appeal deadline of April 22, 2022. Claimant received the decision on April 29, 2022 and submitted his appeal on May 3, 2022, four days after receiving the appeal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appellant's appeal is timely. The administrative law judge finds the appeal is timely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The record shows that the appellant did not receive the decision within ten days of the mailing date and was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. After receiving the decision on 04/29/22 he took four days to file his appeal, and therefore the appeal is deemed timely filed.

Regarding the Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) program:

Iowa Code section 96.3(7) provides, in pertinent part:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

PL 116-136 Sec 2107 provides in pertinent part:

PANDEMIC EMERGENCY UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION.

(2) PROVISIONS OF AGREEMENT. —

Any agreement under paragraph (1) shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of pandemic emergency unemployment compensation to individuals who—

(A) have exhausted all rights to regular compensation under the State law or under Federal law with respect to a benefit year (excluding any benefit year that ended before July 1, 2019);

(B) have no rights to regular compensation with respect to a week under such law or any other State unemployment compensation law or to compensation under any other Federal law;

(C) are not receiving compensation with respect to such week under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; and

(D) are able to work, available to work, and actively seeking work.

Here, claimant has already been disqualified from receiving PEUC as of 11/22/20 from 22A-UI-11687-DH-T, as detailed above. The claimant was overpaid $2,239.00 in PEUC beginning 11/22/20 through 03/13/21.

DECISION:

The April 12, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant was overpaid $2,239.00 in PEUC benefits which must be repaid.
