871 IAC 26.2 - Dismissed - Not a Contested Case

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Jane Tucker (claimant) appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated June 12, 2013, reference 06, which held she was not able to perform work as of January 6, 2013. Due notice was issued scheduling the matter for a telephone hearing to be held July 29, 2013. Before a hearing could be held, the Agency granted the relief requested by the employer by issuing a subsequent decision holding the January 6, 2013 decision null and void, so no hearing was held.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether a hearing in this matter is necessary.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having reviewed and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The decision from which the claimant has appealed has been rendered null and void by a subsequent fact-finding decision issued June 13, 2013.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The question is whether a hearing in this matter is necessary. In this case, the June 12, 2013, decision from which the claimant appealed was later amended and considered null and void by the Department. As a result of the later decision that amended reference 06, there are no issues to be adjudicated in this matter. This matter is therefore dismissed.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated June 12, 2013, reference 06, is null and void. The decision was amended by a decision dated June 13, 2013, reference 08.
