ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CASEYS MARKETING COMPANY
Employer

OC: 04/24/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 17, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated May 10, 2022, (Reference 01) that denied unemployment insurance benefits. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 2:00 p.m. on July 1, 2022, at Des Moines, Iowa. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Krystal Hines, Store Manager. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant worked for this employer from May 24, 2019, until April 22, 2022, when she quit the employment. The claimant was a part-time Kitchen Team Member. The claimant objected to the manner in which the employer stored materials for the kitchen and the store and felt that some of the storage methods were against regulations. The claimant also objected to employees not wearing masks in the store. The claimant received corrective instruction from the employer for failing to complete all of her assigned tasks during her shifts. The employer retrained the claimant on her duties, but she was routinely unable to complete her tasks within her assigned shift. On April 22, 2022, the claimant quit the employment by leaving a note on the manager's desk at the end of her shift. Continuing work was available had the claimant not quit, and her job was not in jeopardy.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

The claimant quit her job by leaving a note on the manager's desk at the end of her shift. The claimant objected to some of the employer's practices, but these objections do not rise to the level of good cause attributable to the employer within the meaning of the law. Continuing work was available, and the claimant's job was not in jeopardy. Her quitting was not caused by her employer. Benefits must be denied.

DECISION:

The May 10, 2022, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
