Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(4) – Determination of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 10, 2022, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the February 11, 2021, (reference 04) monetary determination. The claimant was properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 28, 2022. The hearing was held together with appeals 22A-UI-02962-CS-T; 22A-UI-02964-CS-T; and 22A-UI-02966-CS-T and combined into one record. Claimant participated. Administrative notice was taken of claimant's unemployment insurance benefits, including claimant's monetary determination dated May 5, 2020, and corrected monetary determination dated February 11, 2021.

ISSUES:

Is claimant's appeal timely?

Is the monetary record dated February 11, 2021, correct?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: A corrected monetary determination was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record on February 11, 2021. Claimant received the decision within the appeal period. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau within ten calendar days. The appeal was not filed until January 10, 2022, which is after the date noticed on the unemployment insurance decision because the claimant did not thoroughly read the decision to know that she needed to appeal it.

In claimant's original May 5, 2020, monetary determination, it included wage credits for the employer Praxidyn LLC. In this determination claimant was found eligible for a weekly benefit amount of $500.00 and a maximum wage credit of $13,000.00. (May 5, 2021, Monetary Determination). Claimant never worked for this employer. On February 11, 2021, Iowa Workforce Development removed the wage credits for Praxidyn LLC from claimant's wage credits. By doing so claimant's weekly benefit amount was reduced to $235.00 and claimant's maximum benefit amount was $4,779.93. (February 11, 2021, Monetary Determination).

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal is untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of § 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to § 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving § 96.5, subsection 10, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to § 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving § 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding § 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Bd. of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974);

Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal.

The administrative law judge concludes that failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6(2), and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The February 11, 2021, (reference 04) corrected monetary determination is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the corrected monetary determination remains in effect.
