IOWA DEPARTMENT OF INSPECTIONS AND APPEALS ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

MARLA J PETRIE STEVENS Claimant APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-17434-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 08/28/22 Claimant: Appellant (5)

lowa Code § 96.4-3 - Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated September 16, 2022 (reference 03) which held claimant not able and available for work. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on October 14, 2022. Claimant participated personally.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is able and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds:

Claimant stated that for the first week when she filed for unemployment benefits – the week ending September 3, 2022 – she was paid by her former employer in the amount of $396.00. (Claimant's weekly benefit amount is $361.00.)

Claimant stated that for her second week when she filed for unemployment benefits she stayed with a friend out of town.

After these statements, claimant stated, "thank you" and hung up the phone.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

lowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

lowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

For the week ending September 3, 2022, claimant earned more than $15.00 over her weekly benefit amount of $361.00, thereby making her ineligible for unemployment benefits. For the week ending September 10, 2022, claimant was away from her residence staying with a friend, she was not earnestly and actively seeking work and not physically in the area to do work if it had become available.

Inasmuch as the claimant has not shown the ability to work for the week ending September 10, 2022, she has not established the ability to work. Benefits shall be denied for the week ending September 10, 2022 as claimant was not able and available for work. Benefits are denied for the week ending September 3, 2022 as claimant had wages exceeding those that would allow her benefits for that week.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated September 16, 2022 (reference 03) is modified with no change in effect. Claimant is not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the period between August 28, 2022 and September 10, 2022. Claimant shall be eligible to receive benefits after this period provided claimant meets all other eligibility requirements.
