APPEAL 22A-UI-18526-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

JOHNSTON COMMUNITY SCH DISTRICT

Employer

OC: 06/07/20

Claimant: Appellant (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.19(38) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 1, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the February 24, 2021, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on the determination that claimant was not partially unemployed. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on November 28, 2022. Appeal numbers 22A-UI-18526-AR-T, 22A-UI-18527-AR-T, 22A-UI-18528-AR-T, and 22A-UI-18529-AR-T were heard together and created one record. Claimant, Deborah M. Westergaard, participated personally. Employer, Johnston Community School District, participated through Benefits Manager Kayla Badtram. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant's appeal timely?
Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: An unemployment insurance decision was mailed to the claimant's address of record on February 24, 2021. However, claimant has never lived at or received mail at the address of record. She has resided at her mailing address since 1996. Claimant did not receive the unemployment insurance decision. Her first notice of the disqualification was a notice that Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) intended to withhold her state tax refund due to an overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits. That notice was mailed October 27, 2022. Claimant filed her appeal on November 1, 2022. Claimant noted that she did receive a call from IWD during the height of the pandemic verifying her mailing address. She told IWD that the address of record was not hers, and she was alerted to the potential for identity theft at that time. There was no further contact from IWD of which claimant was aware, until she received notice that her tax refund would be withheld.

A claim for unemployment insurance benefits was opened with an effective date of June 7, 2020. Claimant denies filing a claim for unemployment insurance benefits at any time. At the time the claim was filed, claimant was a full-time teacher with the employer, and had been since August 11, 1999. She remains employed in her full-time capacity as of the date of her unemployment appeal hearing. Claimant received the renewed contract for the fall 2020 semester sometime in spring 2020. She was aware she would return to work as a full-time teacher in fall 2020 as she had in past semesters. Claimant was aware she was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits between academic years or terms because she remained employed full time with the employer.

Though the school was impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic and the governor's emergency proclamation in spring 2020, claimant remained employed as a full-time teacher throughout the school year. She was paid as provided in her contract.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that claimant was not totally or partially unemployed effective June 7, 2020. Benefits are denied.

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

The appellant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because the decision was not received. Without notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The claimant timely appealed the notice that her tax refund would be withheld due to an overpayment, which was the first notice of disqualification. Therefore, the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37", paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

- a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.
- b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Claimant was not totally or partially unemployed effective June 7, 2020. She remained employed in her full-time capacity with this employer. She received full-time wages as established in her contract of employment. Claimant is not totally or partially unemployed under the meaning of the law, and benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal is accepted as timely. The February 24, 2021, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant is not totally or partially unemployed. Benefits are denied effective June 7, 2020.

REMAND:

The claimant testified that her personal information was used by an unknown person to commit fraud. The fraudulent claim and identity theft issues are remanded to the Investigation and Recovery Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for further investigation.
