OC: 02/02/14
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant appealed a representative's February 26, 2014 determination (reference 01) that disqualified him from receiving benefits and held the employer's account exempt from charge because he had been discharged for disqualifying reasons. Notices of hearing were mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record informing them a telephone hearing would be held at 10:30 a.m. on April 4, 2014. The claimant was called for the April 4 hearing, but he was not available at the telephone number he provided for the hearing. He did not participate in the hearing.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed when the claimant/appellant did not participate in the hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. The claimant/appellant was not available at the telephone number he provided for the hearing. He did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice.

The representative's determination concluded the claimant was not qualified to receive unemployment insurance benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a hearing after proper service of notice, the judge may enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. The statute further states that if a party makes a timely request to vacate the decision and shows good cause for failing to appear, the judge shall vacate the decision and conduct another hearing.

The Agency rules at Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) provide that if the appealing party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the Appeals Bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the judge may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code § 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing and shows good cause for reopening the hearing. The rules further state that failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing is not good cause for reopening the record. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7)c.

The claimant/appellant appealed the unemployment insurance determination, but failed to participate in the hearing. The claimant/appellant has defaulted on his appeal. Based on Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.14(7), the decision remains in force and effect.

If the claimant/appellant disagrees with this decision, a request must be made to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the end of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the claimant/appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The representative's February 26, 2014 determination (reference 01) is affirmed. The determination denying the claimant benefits as of February 2, 2014, remains in effect.
