APPEAL 23A-UI-08297-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 07/23/23
Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) – Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 28, 2023, the employer filed an appeal from the August 16, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits effective July 23, 2023, based on the determination that claimant was able to and available for work. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 13, 2023. Claimant, Ardo A. Abdi, did not participate. Employer, Walmart Inc., participated through Process Manager Yvette Wiltshire. Employer's Exhibits 1 through 5 were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on April 5, 2014, as a team associate in the seasonal department of the store. Since early 2021, claimant has been a part-time employee. In that role, she is not guaranteed any hours per week. Her current availability is Thursday and Friday each week. Claimant earns $15.02 per hour.

Claimant was on a leave of absence beginning May 20, 2023. She was expected to, and did, return to work effective July 22, 2023. Upon returning to work, she had to be returned to the schedule. She was first scheduled the week ending August 12, 2023. During that week, she was scheduled a total of 16 hours on Thursday and Friday.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of July 23, 2023, and a reopen date of August 6, 2023. She filed one weekly continuing claim the week ending August 12, 2023. Her weekly benefit amount is $582.00.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Claimant filed no weekly continuing claims between July 23, 2023, and August 5, 2023. These weeks need not be addressed here.

Since August 6, 2023, claimant has been employed under the same hours and wages as contemplated at hire. Because claimant does not have full-time base period wages and the level of employment is consistent with the base period wage history with this employer, claimant may not be considered partially unemployed. Benefits are denied. Inasmuch as employer is offering the same wages and hours as contemplated at hire, no benefit charges shall be made to its account.

DECISION:

The August 16, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is MODIFIED IN FAVOR OF THE APPELLANT. Claimant is employed at the same hours and wages as agreed upon at the time of hire and, therefore, is not partially unemployed. Benefits are denied effective August 6, 2023.
