APPEAL 23A-UI-01151-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 03/15/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Code § 95.5(5) – Benefit Deductions
Iowa Code § 96.19(38) – Total and Partial Unemployment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the January 26, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that determined claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,356.00 for the 17-week period ending August 29, 2020, due to unreported or underreported wages earned with the employer. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on March 9, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-01152-AR-T and 23A-UI-01153-AR-T were heard together and created one record. The claimant, Lyndsey T. Paden, participated personally. The employer, Summit Pizza, Inc., participated through Melissa Barrett. Employer's Exhibits 1 and 2 were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is claimant totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed?
Did claimant correctly report wages earned?
Is claimant eligible for benefits based on wages earned?
Is claimant overpaid unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of March 15, 2020. Her weekly benefit amount was $168.00. At the time, the employer was impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, so claimant began claiming benefits. Claimant was paid based on three different pay codes, depending on the job she was assigned during the shift. This made it difficult for her to track and report her wages during her weekly claims for unemployment benefits. Her reporting was based on estimates. She tried to report her wages accurately but did not think that she knew how to at the time she was making claims for benefits.

Iowa Workforce Development made an inquiry into wages earned by claimant. The parties reviewed the wage report and agreed that it correctly reflected claimant's wages during the weeks in which she claimed benefits. The wage report provided the following information:

Week ending	Claimant wages reported	Employer wages reported	Benefits paid	Benefits entitled	Overpayment
5/2/20	50	97	160	113	47
5/16/20	125	252	85	0	85

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.3(7) states:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.5(5) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

5. Other compensation.

a. For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving or has received payment in the form of any of the following:

(1) Wages in lieu of notice, separation allowance, severance pay, or dismissal pay.

(2) Compensation for temporary disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

(3) A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment made under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base period or chargeable employer where, except for benefits under the federal Social Security Act or the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, the plan's eligibility requirements or benefit payments are affected by the base period employment or the remuneration for the base period employment. However, this subparagraph shall only be applicable if the base period employer has made one hundred percent of the contribution to the plan.

b. Provided, that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, the individual is entitled to receive for the week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraph "a", subparagraph (1), (2), or (3), were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the department shall recover the excess amount of benefits paid by the department for the period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. However, compensation for service-connected disabilities or compensation for accrued leave based on military service by the beneficiary with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, does not disqualify any individual otherwise qualified from any of the benefits contemplated herein. A deduction shall not be made from the amount of benefits payable for a week for individuals receiving federal social security pensions to take into account the individuals' contributions to the pension program.

Iowa Code section 96.3(3) provides:

3. Partial unemployment. An individual who is partially unemployed in any week as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", and who meets the conditions of eligibility for benefits shall be paid with respect to that week an amount equal to the individual's weekly benefit amount less that part of wages payable to the individual with respect to that week in excess of one-fourth of the individual's weekly benefit amount. The benefits shall be rounded to the lower multiple of one dollar.

The administrative law judge concludes that claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the gross amount of $1,356.00 pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3(7). Those benefits must be repaid.

DECISION:

The January 26, 2023 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant was overpaid benefits in the amount of $1,356.00, which must be repaid.
