(Decision Dated & Mailed)

871 IAC 26.8(5) - Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed a timely appeal from the January 30, 2004, reference 01, decision that allowed benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on March 1, 2004. The claimant did not participate. The employer did participate through Kai Brown, and was represented by Lucie Hengen of Employers Unity.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The employer's witness had no testimony to place in the record as, Mr. Brown had no knowledge of the events that led to the claimant's separation from employment. Another employee who was to participate in the hearing was on vacation. The employer's requested a continuance after the hearing was concluded due to its witnesses being away on vacation.

The administrative law judge has conducted a careful review of the administrative file to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

871 IAC 26.8(3), (4) and (5) provide:

Withdrawals and postponements.

(3) If, due to emergency or other good cause, a party, having received due notice, is unable to attend a hearing or request postponement within the prescribed time, the presiding officer may, if no decision has been issued, reopen the record and, with notice to all parties, schedule another hearing. If a decision has been issued, the decision may be vacated upon the presiding officer's own motion or at the request of a party within 15 days after the mailing date of the decision and in the absence of an appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals. If a decision is vacated, notice shall be given to all parties of a new hearing to be held and decided by another presiding officer. Once a decision has become final as provided by statute, the presiding officer has no jurisdiction to reopen the record or vacate the decision.

(4) A request to reopen a record or vacate a decision may be heard ex parte by the presiding officer. The granting or denial of such a request may be used as a grounds for appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals upon the issuance of the presiding officer's final decision in the case.

(5) If good cause for postponement or reopening has not been shown, the presiding officer shall make a decision based upon whatever evidence is properly in the record.

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed evidence in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case is correct and should be affirmed.

The employer has requested to reopen the record since its witness was away on vacation at the time of the hearing. The employer did not request a postponement of the hearing three days prior to the commencement of the hearing as is required by 871 IAC 26.8(2). The employer has not established how allowing a witness to take vacation constitutes an emergency. Thus, the employer's request to continue the case is denied. Additionally, the employer's request to reopen the record is also denied.

Pursuant to the rule, the appellant must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the beginning of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated January 30, 2004, reference 01, is affirmed. The decision holding the claimant qualified for benefits remains in effect. This decision will become final unless a written request establishing good cause to reopen the record is made to the administrative law judge within 15 days of the date of this decision.
