Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5()a – Voluntary Quitting

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the July 28, 2021 unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant's voluntarily quitting without good cause attributable to the employer. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 6, 2022. Claimant Paul Hein participated. Employer participated through Elena Boryuk and Irakliy Surguladze. No exhibits were offered or admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was hired in July 2020 as a landscaper. He worked on a part-time basis. Claimant would check into work every day to determine whether he needed to work each day. Irakliy was the claimant's immediate supervisor. The last day claimant physically worked for the employer was in August 19, 2020 when claimant voluntarily quit. The claimant sent a text message to his manager stating he had another landscaper opportunity with his neighbor and that he wouldn't be able to work for Irakliy any longer. Claimant testified that he quit because he didn't think he was capable of doing the work requested of him. He also testified that he quit to care for his father. The claimant testified that he was physically unable to move wheelbarrow of concrete. The claimant's job was not in jeopardy and continuing work was available had he not quit. The claimant had no disciplinary actions during the course of his employment.

ISSUE:

Did claimant quit without good cause attributable to the employer?
Was claimant discharged for disqualifying misconduct?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

In this case, the claimant desired to leave employment because he didn't think he could physically do the job well and because he wanted to care for his father. While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The July 28, 2021 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible.
