Claimant: Appellant (2)

Section 96.3-7 – Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant, Kevin J Winburn, appealed a representative's decision that he was overpaid unemployment benefits dated August 2, 2024 (reference 09). After due notice was issued, a telephonic hearing was held on September 5, 2024 together with 24A-UI-07058-ED-T. Claimant, Kevin Winburn, did participate. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record. No exhibits were offered or admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The overpayment issue in this case was created by a disqualification decision that has now been updated by a decision dated August 16, 2024 (reference 13) that concludes the claimant was eligible for benefits between April 28, 2024 and May 4, 2024. The claimant was paid $582.00 for one week of unemployment benefits from April 28, 2024 to May 4, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.3(7), provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.
 - a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) (a) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. The employer shall not be relieved of charges if benefits are paid because the employer or an agent of the employer failed to respond timely or adequately to the department's request for information relating to the payment of benefits. This prohibition against relief of charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers. If the department determines that an employer's failure to respond timely or adequately was due to insufficient notification from the department, the employer's account shall not be charged for the overpayment.

(b) However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this state pursuant to section 602.10101.

The administrative law judge concludes that claimant is not overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $582.00 for the one week ending May 4, 2024, pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3-7 as the disqualification decision that created the overpayment decision has now been updated to show the claimant is eligible the week of April 28, 2024 to May 4, 2024.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated August 2, 2024, reference 09, is reversed. Claimant is not overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $582.00 for the week ending May 4, 2024.
