APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-13465-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/15/20
Claimant: Respondent (2R)

Iowa Code § 96.6-2 – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed the representative's decision dated May 27, 2022, reference 10, that concluded it failed to file a timely protest regarding the claimant's separation of employment on April 29, 2019, and no disqualification of unemployment insurance benefits was imposed. A hearing was scheduled and held on July 20, 2022, pursuant to due notice. Employer participated by Edith Rubalcava. Claimant failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. Employer's Exhibits 1-3 and Department Exhibit A were admitted into evidence.

ISSUES:

Whether the employer's protest is timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant's notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on April 6, 2020, and received by the employer within ten days. The notice of claim contains a warning that any protest must be postmarked or returned not later than ten days from the initial mailing date. The employer did not effect a protest until May 20, 2022, which is after the ten-day period had expired. Employer stated that they attempted to fax in their protest on April 15, but could not successfully fax in the protest as IWD's fax was not receiving documents at that time – seemingly because of the Covid influx. Employer then mailed in their protest. Employer provided a copy of their retained stamped protest showing a date when they mailed in the protest on April 16, 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

A portion of the Iowa Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979).

The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of that court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed. The employer has shown that they did comply with the jurisdictional time limit. Therefore, the administrative law judge retains jurisdiction to entertain a protest regarding the separation from employment.

The administrative law judge concludes the employer effected a timely protest within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law, and any delay was due to an Agency error or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the employer has effected a timely protest pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6-2, and the administrative law judge retains jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the claimant's termination of employment. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979) and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company v. Employment Appeal Board, 465 N.W.2d 674 (Iowa App. 1990).

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated May 27, 2022, reference 10, is reversed. The employer is deemed to have filed a timely protest, and the decision of the representative is reversed. This matter is remanded to the fact finder for determination of the separation issue.
