APPEAL 22A-UI-14511-DG-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 05/15/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) – Able & Available - Benefits Eligibility Conditions
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(27) – Active and Earnest Search for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the June 21, 2022, (reference 02), unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon a finding that claimant was not able and available for work. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled to be held on August 8, 2022. Claimant participated. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant able to work and available for work effective May 15, 2022?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant filed a claim effective May 15, 2022. The claimant is required conduct at least four reemployment activities each week. Claimant lives overseas and he has been conducting at least four reemployment activities each week as required.

Claimant submitted written evidence showing that he has been conducting work searches each week, and that he is seeking work. Claimant does not live in the United States, and he has filed his claim each week by phone because he is unable to access the department's website. Claimant is able and available for work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has made an active and earnest search for work for the weeks in question, and he otherwise able and available for work beginning on May 15, 2022.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in § 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in § 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of § 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under § 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(27) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(27) Failure to report on a claim that a claimant made any effort to find employment will make a claimant ineligible for benefits during the period. Mere registration at the workforce development center does not establish that a claimant is able and available for suitable work. It is essential that such claimant must actively and earnestly seek work.

The claimant has sufficiently demonstrated to the satisfaction of the administrative law judge that an active and earnest search was conducted for work for the five weeks ending June 18, 2022, and he is able and available for work beginning on May 15, 2022. Accordingly, benefits are allowed beginning on that date.

DECISION:

The June 21, 2022 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant did make an active and earnest search for work for the five weeks ending June 18, 2022. Claimant is able and available for work. Benefits are allowed beginning on May 15, 2022, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
