ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

BARBARA A JESSOP
Claimant

APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-01588-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

WEST LIBERTY FOODS LLC
Employer

OC: 12/15/19
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6-2 – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the February 4, 2020, (reference 03) decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on March 3, 2023. The claimant did participate. The employer did participate through Monica Dyer. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted to the record.

ISSUES:

Whether the appeal is timely?

Whether claimant is able and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: A decision was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record on February 4, 2020. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Section by February 14, 2020. The appeal was not filed until February 15, 2023, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. Claimant stated that she never received the two (ref 03 and 04) decisions sent to her address on February 4, 2020; never received the February 20, 2020 (ref 05) decision; never received the April 1, 2021 (ref 06) decision; never received the November 10, 2021 (ref 012) decision; and never received the November 9, 2021 (ref 013) decision. Claimant stated that she has no problems with her mail.

Claimant stated that she did receive the February 13, 2023 (ref 014) decision that stated claimant's state income tax refund was being withheld to offset the established overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits. Claimant filed a timely appeal in that matter. That appeal was used as the basis for setting up the appeals in all of the other reference numbers previously mentioned.

Claimant worked for employer as a full time boxer, and had for a number of years. For a number of years that claimant did work for employer, she was on intermittent FMLA. As a result of this, although claimant was a full time employee until the time of her separation of October 1, 2020, she did not work full time hours. For the week ending January 4, 2020, claimant reported earning $360.00. Claimant's weekly benefit amount was $334.00. As a result of this, claimant received no unemployment benefits for the week ending January 4, 2020 because she earned money in excess of that allowable to receive benefits.

Employer stated that for the week ending December 29, 2019 there were fewer hours available to claimant than normally offered, and for the weeks between April 7, 2020 and May 18, 2020 claimant and other employees did not work due to Covid restrictions. Other than those weeks, full time work was available to claimant had she been able and available to work full time hours. Claimant did use her intermittent FMLA allowance to often call off from work, and this prevented her from getting full time hours.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. . . . Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.

The ten calendar days for appeal begin running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

Pursuant to rules Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.2(96)(1) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(96)(1), appeals are considered filed when postmarked, if mailed. Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The record shows that the appellant did may not have had a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal.

The administrative law judge concludes that failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was potentially due to an Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal is therefore deemed timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code Section 96.6-2, and the administrative law judge retains jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See, Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Inasmuch as the claimant did work sufficient hours to earn wages that would disqualify her from the receipt of unemployment benefits for the week ending January 4, 2020, the claimant is not able and available to work for that week. The decision is affirmed. It is noted that claimant did not receive benefits for the week ending January 4, 2020.

DECISION:

The February 4, 2020, (reference 03) decision is affirmed. Although the appeal in this case was deemed timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect as claimant worked sufficient hours to not be considered able and available to work.
