APPEAL 15A-UI-06916-DL-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 05/24/15
Claimant: Appellant (4)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.27 – Voluntary Quitting – Part-Time Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the June 12, 2015, (reference 02), unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon voluntarily quitting the employment. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 21, 2015. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Area Supervisor, Greg Fox. Connie Hickerson of Talx represented the employer.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the part-time employment with good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed part-time as a housekeeper from September 5, 2010, and was separated from employment on April 15, 2015, when she quit due to health concerns. She started another job on June 15, 2015.

The administrative record shows that the claimant has not requalified for benefits since this separation but reflects she appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible for benefits after this part-time employer's wages are excluded from the base period.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer, and has not requalified but appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible.

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Code § 96.5-1-g provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

g. The individual left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer under circumstances which did or would disqualify the individual for benefits, except as provided in paragraph "a" of this subsection but, subsequent to the leaving, the individual worked in and was paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.27 provides:

Voluntary quit of part-time employment and requalification. An individual who voluntarily quits without good cause part-time employment and has not requalified for benefits following the voluntary quit of part-time employment, yet is otherwise monetarily eligible for benefits based on wages paid by the regular or other base period employers, shall not be disqualified for voluntarily quitting the part-time employment. The individual and the part-time employer which was voluntarily quit shall be notified on the Form 65-5323 or 60-0186, Unemployment Insurance Decision, that benefit payments shall not be made which are based on the wages paid by the part-time employer and benefit charges shall not be assessed against the part-time employer's account; however, once the individual has met the requalification requirements following the voluntary quit without good cause of the part-time employer, the wages paid in the part-time employment shall be available for benefit payment purposes. For benefit charging purposes and as determined by the applicable requalification requirements, the wages paid by the part-time employer shall be transferred to the balancing account.

See also, McCarthy v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 76 N.W.2d. 201 (Iowa 1956) wherein the court held that persons who become unemployed by a layoff from their full-time employer cannot be disqualified for a previous voluntary quit from a part-time employer.

Inasmuch as claimant quit due to personal health concerns, the separation is disqualifying. However, the claimant has not requalified for benefits since the separation but appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible according to base period wages. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The June 12, 2015, (reference 02), unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer and has not requalified for benefits but appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible. The account of this employer (091676) shall not be charged.
