DECISION

IOWA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE
Employer

OC: 07/08/12
Claimant: Appellant (6)

871 IAC 26.8(1) – Dismissal of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Cyd Hanson (claimant) appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated August 2, 2012, reference 01, which held that she was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits because she was discharged from the Iowa Catholic Conference (employer) for work-related misconduct. This decision was amended by a representative's August 10, 2012 decision (reference 02) that the claimant also appealed. Since the decision for the amended decision addresses the same separation issues, (see decision for appeal 12A-UI-09662-BT) this appeal is dismissed.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the appeal should be dismissed.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant appealed a representative's August 2, 2012 decision. This decision was amended by a representative's decision August 10, 2012. The decision for appeal 12A-UI-09662-BT addresses the claimant's eligibility to receive benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

This appeal is dismissed since the decision for 12A-UI-09662-BT, addresses the claimant's eligibility to receive benefits based on a representative's August 10, 2012 amended decision.

DECISION:

The representative's August 2, 2012 decision (reference 01) was amended by the decision issued on August 10, 2012 (reference 02). The amended decision's issues were addressed in the appeal for decision 12A-UI-09662-BT. Therefore, this appeal is dismissed.
