STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The overpayment issue in this case was created by a ruling claimant was improperly paid unemployment benefits. Claimant was deemed to have been overpaid $1,192.00 for the three weeks ending January 30, 2016.

Claimant chose not to pursue his appeal in 16A-UI-05342-B2T. Claimant further stated that the employer listed in that matter was not the correct employer, and claimant wished to pursue a claim against another employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code § 96.3-7, as amended in 2008, provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment. The employer shall not be charged with the benefits.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this state pursuant to section 602.10101.

The administrative law judge concludes that claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,192.00 for the three weeks ending January 30, 2016, pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3-7 as the disqualification decision that created the overpayment decision has now been affirmed. The claimant was overpaid these monies as per employer Aerotek is not responsible for the monies paid to claimant and claimant was not unemployed.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated May 11, 2016, reference 06, is affirmed. Claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,192.00. This matter is remanded to the fact finder to make a determination as to whether claimant is entitled to unemployment benefits vis-à-vis any other employer.
