APPEAL 23A-UI-11068-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

CRACKER BARREL OLD COUNTRY STORE
Employer

OC: 10/08/23
Claimant: Appellant (2R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Availability Disqualifications Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 29, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the November 2, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on a finding claimant was still employed for the same hours and wages as in the contract of hire. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on December 15, 2023. The claimant participated personally with the assistance of his neighbor, Paul, who did not provide a last name. The employer did not participate. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant eligible for total, partial, or temporary unemployment benefits?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and same wages?
Is the employer's account subject to charges?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was hired by Cracker Barrel Old Country Store as a part-time dishwasher on April 27, 2023. Claimant typically worked four days per week from 4:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. and earned $15.10 per hour. Claimant worked in this position part-time until he permanently separated from employment on September 9, 2023.

Claimant filed an original claim for unemployment insurance benefits effective October 8, 2023. Since filing his initial claim for benefits, claimant has performed no work and earned no wages from any employer. Claimant has had no restrictions on work and has been able to and available for work since October 8, 2023.

On November 2, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) mailed the reference 03 decision to claimant's address of record. The appellant did not receive the decision. Claimant learned of the disqualification decision in late-November 2023 and promptly filed his appeal on November 29, 2023.

The issue of claimant's permanent separation from employment with Cracker Barrel Old Country Store has not been adjudicated by the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development and will be remanded for an initial investigation and determination.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appellant's appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The appellant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because the decision was not received. Without notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The claimant filed an appeal within a reasonable period of time after discovering the decision. Therefore, the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)a provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

In this case, claimant has been able to and available for work since his permanent separation from employment. He is no longer employed in his position at the same hours and same wages as his original contract of hire. As such, claimant has established that he is able to and available for work pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.4(3). Benefits are allowed effective October 8, 2023, provided claimant remains otherwise eligible.

The issue of whether claimant's separation from employment was disqualifying will be remanded to the Benefits Bureau for an initial investigation and determination.

DECISION:

The appeal is timely. The November 2, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant is no longer employed with this employer and has established that he is able to and available for work. Benefits are allowed effective October 8, 2023, provided claimant remains otherwise eligible.

REMAND:

The issue of claimant's separation from employment shall be remanded to the Benefits Bureau for an initial investigation and determination.
