APPEAL NO. 12A-UI-10452-MT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

DOLGENCORP LLC DOLLAR GENERAL

Employer

OC: 07/29/12

Claimant: Appellant (2)

Section 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated August 16, 2012, reference 01, which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on October 1, 2012. Claimant participated. Employer failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. Exhibits One and Two were admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on July 17, 2012. Claimant was a full-time employee. The general manager would reduce claimant's hours below 30 per week randomly. The general manager told claimant that the hours were reduced because the manager was mad at her. Claimant filed complaints with upper management to no avail.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has established that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because of a reduction in work hours caused by employer retaliation. This is good cause attributable to employer for a quit. Benefits allowed.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

871 IAC 24.26(1) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(1) A change in the contract of hire. An employer's willful breach of contract of hire shall not be a disqualifiable issue. This would include any change that would jeopardize the worker's safety, health or morals. The change of contract of hire must be substantial in nature and could involve changes in working hours, shifts, remuneration, location of employment, drastic modification in type of work, etc. Minor changes in a worker's routine on the job would not constitute a change of contract of hire.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated August 16, 2012, reference 01, is reversed. Unemployment insurance benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
