HEARING NUMBER: 21B-UI-13239

EMPLOYMENT APPEAL BOARD
DECISION

SECTION: 10A.601 Employment Appeal Board Review

DECISION

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The notice of hearing in this matter was mailed July 13, 2021. The notice set a hearing for August 9, 2021. The Employer did not appear for or participate in the hearing. The reason the Employer did not appear is because after making several attempts to participate in the hearing, the administrative law judge was unable to hear anything on the Employer's side of the line. The administrative law judge continued the hearing without any testimony from the Employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 10A.601(4) (2019) provides:

4. Appeal board review. The appeal board may on its own motion affirm, modify, or set aside any decision of an administrative law judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision to initiate further appeals before it. The appeal board shall permit such further appeal by any of the parties interested in a decision of an administrative law judge and by the representative whose decision has been overruled or modified by the administrative law judge. The appeal board shall review the case pursuant to rules adopted by the appeal board. The appeal board shall promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.

Here the Employer did not participate in the hearing because she had not provided a telephone number for the administrative law judge to call. When the Employer did not receive a call, she contacted the administrative law judge within a reasonable timeframe after the scheduled hearing time, which established her intention to follow through with the appeals process. For this reason, the matter will be remanded for another hearing before an administrative law judge so that the Employer may avail herself of her due process right.

We caution the Employer that, barring exceptional circumstances, we will not again excuse a failure to call in a number where the Employer could be reached.

DECISION:

The decision of the administrative law judge dated August 18, 2021 is not vacated and remains in force unless and until the Department makes a differing determination pursuant to this remand. This matter is remanded to an administrative law judge in the Workforce Development Center, Appeals Section. The administrative law judge shall conduct a hearing following due notice. After the hearing, the administrative law judge shall issue a decision which provides the parties appeal rights.
