(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-1 - Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated April 27, 2006, reference 01, that concluded she voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer. A telephone hearing was held on May 17, 2006. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. The claimant called and provided a phone number where she could be reached for the hearing but was not available at that number at the time of the hearing. Bill Rose participated in the hearing on behalf of the employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant worked for the employer as a certified nursing assistant from October 15, 2003, to March 23, 2006. The claimant was informed and understood that under the employer's work rules, employees were required to notify the employer if they were not able to work as scheduled and would be considered to have quit after being absent without notice.

The claimant was absent from work without notice on March 24, 27 and 28, 2006, and was considered to have voluntarily quit employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue in this case is whether the claimant voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

871 IAC 24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant was absent from work without notice on three consecutive work days in violation of the employer's work rules. She is deemed to have voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated April 27, 2006, reference 01, is affirmed. The claimant is disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits until she has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
