Claimant: Appellant (2)

Section 96.4-3 – Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Aida D. Lozano-Camacho filed a timely appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated August 11, 2010, reference 02, that denied benefits to her upon a finding that she had not established that she was legally authorized to work in the United States. Before a hearing could be held in this matter, the Agency issued a second decision granting the relief requested by the claimant.

ISSUE:

Does the claimant meet the eligibility requirement of being available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having examined all matters of record, the administrative law judge finds: Aida D. Lozano-Camacho has provided evidence to establish that she is legally authorized to work in the United States.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Since the Agency has already granted the relief requested by the claimant, the administrative law judge concludes that the decision presently on appeal should be reversed.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated August 11, 2010, reference 02, is reversed. The claimant is entitled to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided she is otherwise eligible.
