APPEAL 23A-UI-06901-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 05/28/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) – Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 11, 2023, the employer filed an appeal from the July 5, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon the determination that claimant was able to and available for work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 31, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-06901-AR-T and 23A-UI-06902-AR-T were heard together and created one record. The claimant, Todd A. Sines, did not participate. The employer, Bender Foundry Service Inc., participated through General Manager Amy Reames. Employer's Exhibits 1 through 3 were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed part time as an operator most recently as of February 9, 2023, until this employment ended on June 14, 2023, when he was discharged.

Prior to the discharge, on May 25, 2023, the employer reduced claimant's hours from 24 per week to eight. This was because claimant had difficulty with respect to attendance. The employer told claimant that if he could meet its attendance expectations with respect to being scheduled one day per week, it would, over time, increase the hours offered to him. Claimant's schedule was set at eight hours on Wednesdays. Claimant's hourly wage was $15.00.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of May 28, 2023. Claimant's weekly benefit amount is $388.00. He filed weekly continuing claims for benefits for the period between May 28, 2023, and June 10, 2023. He reported eight hours of wages in each of those two weeks—or $120.00 each week. Claimant did not file a weekly continuing claim for unemployment insurance benefits the week of June 11, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis difference from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

For the period between May 28, 2023, and June 10, 2023, claimant has not been employed under the same hours and wages as contemplated at hire. Because claimant's level of employment is not consistent with the base period wage history with this employer, claimant may be considered partially unemployed. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible and subject to claimant reporting wages earned. Inasmuch as employer is not offering the same wages and hours as contemplated at hire, its account may be charged.

DECISION:

The July 5, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not employed at the same hours and wages as agreed upon at the time of hire and, therefore, is partially unemployed. Benefits are allowed. The account of the employer may be charged.
