APPEAL 23A-UI-01035-AW-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/29/20
Claimant: Appellant (2)

PL 116-136, Sec. 2104 – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the March 14, 2022 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits. Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals properly notified the parties of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 17, 2023. Claimant participated personally. Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) did not participate. The administrative law judge admitted Claimant's Exhibit A into evidence and took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.
Whether claimant was overpaid FPUC benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

On March 14, 2022, IWD issued a decision (reference 04) finding claimant was overpaid FPUC benefits of $7,200.00 for 12 weeks between April 26, 2020 and July 25, 2020 because of a decision issued on March 23, 2021 (reference 02) that denied benefits effective April 26, 2020.

IWD mailed the decision (reference 04) to claimant at the correct address on March 14, 2022. Claimant did not receive the decision. The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by IWD Appeals Section by March 25, 2022. Claimant learned of the decision when she contacted IWD with questions about filing a claim this coming summer. Claimant appealed the decision at her local IowaWorks office on February 1, 2023. IWD received the appeal on February 1, 2023. Claimant would have appealed the decision immediately upon receipt.

The March 23, 2021 (reference 02) decision denying claimant benefits effective April 26, 2020 has been reversed (see appeal number 23A-UI-01033-AW-T).

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1)(c) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant did not receive the decision. Therefore, the appeal notice provisions were invalid. Claimant did not have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. Claimant filed her appeal promptly upon learning of the decision. Claimant's appeal is considered timely.

The next issue to be determined is whether claimant is overpaid FPUC benefits. For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

PL 116-136, Sec. 2104 provides, in pertinent part:

(b) Provisions of Agreement

(1) Federal pandemic unemployment compensation.--Any agreement under this section shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of regular compensation to individuals in amounts and to the extent that they would be determined if the State law of the State were applied, with respect to any week for which the individual is (disregarding this section) otherwise entitled under the State law to receive regular compensation, as if such State law had been modified in a manner such that the amount of regular compensation (including dependents' allowances) payable for any week shall be equal to

(A) the amount determined under the State law (before the application of this paragraph), plus

(B) an additional amount of $600 (in this section referred to as "Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation").

(f) Fraud and Overpayments

(2) Repayment.--In the case of individuals who have received amounts of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which they were not entitled, the State shall require such individuals to repay the amounts of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to the State agency, except that the State agency may waive such repayment if it determines that—

(A) the payment of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation was without fault on the part of any such individual; and

(B) such repayment would be contrary to equity and good conscience.

Because the disqualifying decision was reversed, claimant was not overpaid.

NOTE: Claimant may be overpaid based upon the outcome of the remanded issue in appeal 23A-UI-01033-AW-T.

DECISION:

Claimant's appeal is timely. The March 14, 2022 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED.
