871 IAC 26.8(1) - Withdrawal of Appeal

PROCEDURAL STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The Appeals Section set up an appeal from a February 23, 2010 corrected monetary determination. But, the claimant agreed that this monetary determination was correct and had not appealed this determination. At the hearing, the claimant verified she had not appealed the February 23, 2010 corrected monetary determination. Based on the claimant's verification she had not appealed the February 23 corrected monetary determination and the law, the administrative law judge confirms the claimant was eligible to receive a maximum of $217 in weekly benefits as of November 1, 2009.

ISSUE:

At issue in this matter is whether the appellant herein should be allowed to withdraw its appeal.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant did not appeal the corrected February 23, 2010 monetary determination. At the hearing, the claimant agreed the appeal for this monetary determination was set up in error.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The claimant did not appeal the February 23, 2010 corrected monetary determination. As a result, the claimant effectively withdrew an appeal that was set up in error.

DECISION:

A February 23, 2010 corrected monetary determination is affirmed. The claimant is eligible to receive a maximum weekly benefits amount of $217 on her November 1, 2009 claim.
