ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

L A LEASING INC
Employer

OC: 10/25/15
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Section 96.5-1-j – Separation from Temporary Employer
Section 96.3-7 – Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

L A Leasing (employer) appealed a representative's November 30, 2015, decision (reference 02) that concluded Sharone Brooks (claimant) was eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits. After hearing notices were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on December 30, 2015. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated by Colleen McGuinty, Unemployment Benefits Administrator, and Corey Thompson, Administrative Assistant. Administrative Law Judges Dawn Boucher, Liz Johnson, and Nicole Merrill observed the hearing. The employer offered and Exhibit One was received into evidence. Exhibit D-1 was admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the claimant was separated from employment for any disqualifying reason.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The employer is a temporary employment service. The claimant performed services from August 4, 2014, through October 30, 2015. She signed a document on April 11, 2014, indicating she was to contact the employer within three days following the completion of an assignment to request placement in a new assignment. The claimant was given a copy of the document which was separate from the contract for hire. The claimant completed her last assignment on October 30, 2015. On November 2, 2015, the claimant sought reassignment from the employer. There was no work available in the town she lived.

The claimant filed for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of October 25, 2015. The employer participated at the fact-finding interview on November 25, 2015.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was not separated from employment for a disqualifying reason.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Under the Iowa Code the employer must advise the claimant of the three-day notice requirement and give the claimant a copy of that requirement. The notice requirement must be separate from the contract for hire. The employer followed the requirements of the code. The claimant did request reassignment and no work was available in her area. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The representative's November 30, 2015, decision (reference 02) is affirmed. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
