APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-10393-B2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

ALORICA INC

Employer

OC: 10/01/23

Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit Iowa Code § 96.3-7 – Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits 871 IA Admin. Code 24(10) – Employer Participation in Fact Finding

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated October 24, 2023, (reference 01) which held claimant eligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on November 27, 2023. Employer participated by Samantha Samra and Elizabeth Glecky. Claimant failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant voluntarily guit with good cause attributable to employer?

Whether claimant was overpaid benefits?

If claimant was overpaid benefits, should claimant repay benefits or should employer be charged due to employer's participation or lack thereof in fact finding?

Whether claimant earned 10x their weekly benefit allowance following their separation from employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on July 19, 2023. Claimant voluntarily quit after that date to take other employment. Claimant did work the other job and did earn 10x her weekly benefit amount prior to claimant's job separation from the other employment with LDJ Manufacturing. The reference 02 decision issued on October 31, 2023 indicated that claimant is eligible for benefits (as long as otherwise eligible) and employer's account will not be charged.

Claimant has received unemployment benefits in the amount of $3,954.00.

Employer did not substantially participate in fact finding in this matter, as employer did not provide anyone for the fact finding who could provide information on the separation.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

- 1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:
- a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalifications and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. The employment does not have to be covered employment and does not include self-employment.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-23.43(5) provides:

(5) Sole purpose. The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. No charge shall accrue to the account of the former voluntarily quit employer.

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has established that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause when claimant quit for the sole purpose of taking other employment. Employer's account shall not be charged for benefits received by claimant.

The overpayment issue is moot as claimant is allowed benefits as long as she is otherwise eligible for benefits.

The issue of employer participation is moot as employer's account will not be charged in this matter. Claimant quit employment with this employer for other employment and did work the other job.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated October 24, 2023, (reference 01) is modified in favor of employer. Claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided claimant meets all other eligibility requirements. Employer's account shall not be charged for benefits received by claimant as claimant quit work with employer for other work that claimant did in fact take.
