APPEAL 22A-UI-14118-AR-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 05/29/22
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(3)A – Work Refusal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 20, 2022, the employer filed an appeal from the June 10, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based on the determination that no offer of work was made to claimant. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on August 1, 2022. Appeal number 22A-UI-14119-AR-T was heard together and created one record. Claimant, Jonathan E. Bravo, did not participate. Employer, Wells Fargo Bank, NA, participated through Wilmer Quito. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was a suitable offer of work made to the claimant?
If so, did the claimant fail to accept and was the failure to do so for a good cause reason?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant began working for the employer on May 11, 2015. He was discharged from employment on April 14, 2022. Thereafter, it does not appear that the employer made any offer of work to the claimant. The employer's witness knew of no such offer being extended to claimant after he was discharged from employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant did not refuse a suitable offer of work. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Code section 96.5(3)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

3. Failure to accept work. If the department finds that an individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the department or to accept suitable work when offered that individual. The department shall, if possible, furnish the individual with the names of employers which are seeking employees. The individual shall apply to and obtain the signatures of the employers designated by the department on forms provided by the department. However, the employers may refuse to sign the forms. The individual's failure to obtain the signatures of designated employers, which have not refused to sign the forms, shall disqualify the individual for benefits until requalified. To requalify for benefits after disqualification under this subsection, the individual shall work in and be paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

a. (1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, prior training, length of unemployment, and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, and any other factor which the department finds bears a reasonable relation to the purposes of this paragraph. Work is suitable if the work meets all the other criteria of this paragraph and if the gross weekly wages for the work equal or exceed the following percentages of the individual's average weekly wage for insured work paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest:

(a) One hundred percent, if the work is offered during the first five weeks of unemployment.

(b) Seventy-five percent, if the work is offered during the sixth through the twelfth week of unemployment.

(c) Seventy percent, if the work is offered during the thirteenth through the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(d) Sixty-five percent, if the work is offered after the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(2) However, the provisions of this paragraph shall not require an individual to accept employment below the federal minimum wage.

A two-step analysis is used to determine whether a claimant has refused a suitable offer of work. First, the offer must be for suitable work. If suitability is established, then, claimant must have a good cause reason for refusal. See Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.24(3).

No offer of work was made to claimant after his separation from employment with this employer in April 2022. Accordingly, the issue of work refusal is not disqualifying.

DECISION:

The June 10, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant did not refuse a suitable offer of work. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
