APPEAL 24A-UI-06415-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 05/05/24
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) - Able & Available - Benefits Eligibility Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Erin Myers, filed an appeal from the July 11, 2024, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits for the week ending June 15, 2024, based on the determination that the claimant indicated she was not ready, willing, or able to work during that week. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 30, 2024. The claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant was able to and available for work during the week ending June 15, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant established an original claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of May 5, 2024.

The claimant filed a weekly continuing claim for benefits for the week ending June 15, 2024. That week, the claimant indicated she was not able to and available for work when she filed her claim. This was a mistake. The claimant testified that she was in a hurry when she filled out her weekly claim and that she mistakenly checked the wrong box before she submitted the claim. During the week ending June 15, 2024, the claimant had no barriers to employment. The claimant testified that she was able to and available for work and that she was actively seeking work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was able to work and available for work during the week ending June 15, 2024.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, she must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that she is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22. In this case, there were no barriers to the claimant's ability to seek or accept work during the week of June 9 through June 15, 2024. The claimant's indication that she was not able to and available for work when she filed her weekly claim was a mistake. Accordingly, benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The July 11, 2024, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant was able to work and available for work during the week ending June 15, 2024. Benefits are allowed for the week of June 9 through June 15, 2024, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
