OC: 08/14/22
Claimant: Respondent (1-R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timely Appeal

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 6, 2023, the employer filed an appeal from the Statement of Charges mailed November 9, 2023, for the third quarter of 2023. A hearing was held on January 3, 2024, pursuant to due notice. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Jorie Cummis, Chief Executive Officer of ValeU NSN, employer third-party representative. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?

Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

Is the Statement of Charges correct?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Statement of Charges the Department mailed November 9, 2023, shows charges to this employer's account for S L McMahon in the amount of $156.57. The original claim date was August 14, 2022. The employer received the original Notice of Claim in this matter and timely protested the claim at that time through SIDES. The employer heard nothing further regarding this claim until the Statement of Charges mailed November 9, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did file a timely protest of the claim and a timely appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

Filing – determination – appeal.

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

Employer contribution and reimbursements.

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

The employer timely protested the original claim and timely appealed this statement of charges within the timelines described in the law.

DECISION:

The November 9, 2023, statement of charges for the third quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED.

REMAND:

The Statement of Charges is REMANDED to the Department's Benefits Bureau for a determination of the claimant's eligibility for benefits.
