IN THE IOWA ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

CLINT C CARLSON Claimant

APPEAL 24A-UI-02756-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 01/14/24 Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Available for work Iowa Code § 96.4(7) – Reemployment services Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.6 – Profiling for reemployment services Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.2(1)e – Procedures for workers desiring to file a claim for benefits Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23 (11) – Failure to Report

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Clint Carlson, filed an appeal from the March 4, 2024 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that held the claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits effective February 25, 2024, because the claimant failed to report for a reemployment services appointment. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on April 3, 2024. The claimant participated personally. RESEA Career Planner Stephanie Erusha participated on behalf of Iowa Workforce Development (IWD). The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant available for work effective February 25, 2024?

Did the claimant fail to report as directed by a department representative to participate in a reemployment services appointment or offer justifiable cause for his failure to do so?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of January 14, 2024. On February 20, 2024, IWD mailed a notice to the claimant's address of record instructing him to participate in an initial telephone reemployment services appointment at 9:30 a.m. on February 29, 2024. The notice informed the claimant that a career planner would call him at 9:30 a.m. on February 29 and stated that if the claimant was not able to participate on the scheduled date and time, he must contact the career planner to have the appointment rescheduled. The notice included the career planner's name, phone number, and email address. The notice warned the claimant that failing to report for the appointment would result in a denial of unemployment insurance benefits.

The claimant received the notice on February 25, 2024. The next day, the claimant emailed the career planner informing her that he was not available on February 29, 2024, because he had already committed to chaperoning his child's school field trip that day. The career planner responded to the claimant's email the next day, wherein she agreed to reschedule the reemployment services appointment to 11:30 a.m. on March 1, 2024.

The claimant did not check his email again until March 2, 2024. The claimant did not participate in the rescheduled reemployment services appointment on March 1, 2024. In response to the claimant's failure to participate in the March 1, 2024, reemployment services appointment, IV/D issued the reference 01 decision denying claimant benefits effective February 25, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

lowa Code section 96.4(7) provides:

Required findings.

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

(7) The individual participates in reemployment services as directed by the department pursuant to a profiling system, established by the department, which identifies individuals who are likely to exhaust benefits and be in need of reemployment services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.6 provides:

Reemployment services and eligibility assessment procedure.

(1) The department of workforce development will provide a program which consists of profiling claimants and providing reemployment services.

(2) Purpose.

a. Profiling is a systematic procedure used to identify claimants who, because of certain characteristics, are determined to be permanently separated and most likely to exhaust benefits. Such claimants may be referred to reemployment services.

b. The eligibility assessment program is used to accelerate the individual's return to work and systematically review the individual's efforts towards the same goal.

(3) Reemployment services and eligibility assessment may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. An assessment of the claimant's aptitude, work history, and interest.
- b. Employment counseling regarding reemployment approaches and plans.
- c. Job search assistance and job placement services.
- d. Labor market information.
- e. Job search workshops or job clubs and referrals to employers.
- f. Résumé preparation.

g. Other similar services.

(4) As part of the initial intake procedure, each claimant shall be required to provide the information necessary for profiling and evaluation of the likelihood of needing reemployment assistance.

(5) The referral of a claimant and the provision of reemployment services is subject to the availability of funding and limitations of the size of the classes.

(6) A claimant shall participate in reemployment services when referred by the department unless the claimant establishes justifiable cause for failure to participate or the claimant has previously completed such training or services. Failure by the claimant to participate without justifiable cause shall disqualify the claimant from the receipt of benefits until the claimant participates in the reemployment services or eligibility assessment. The claimant shall contact the agency prior to the scheduled appointment or service to advise the department of the justifiable cause.

a. Justifiable cause for failure to participate is an important and significant reason which a reasonable person would consider adequate justification in view of the paramount importance of reemployment to the claimant. Justifiable cause includes when the claimant is scheduled for an employment interview, is verified return to work, or both prior to the scheduled appointment or service.

(7) Eligibility assessment procedure.

a. Before an individual has claimed five weeks of intrastate benefits, the workforce development center shall receive a computer-selected list of individuals claiming benefits within the target population for review.

b. No eligibility assessment will be performed on an individual unless monetary eligibility and nonmonetary eligibility are established.

c. Once selected for an initial or subsequent eligibility assessment, claimants are required to participate in all components of the assessment as determined by the department.

d. A Notice to Report shall be sent by the workforce development center to an individual who is in an active status at the time of its printing. If the individual does not respond, the department must issue an appropriate failure to report decision and lock the claim to prevent payment.

e. Selected claimants must report in person to the designated workforce development center to receive staff-assisted services for the initial assessment.

f. Before an administrative law judge can rule on a disqualification for failure to report at an lowa workforce development center as directed, there must be evidence to show that the individual was required to report for an interview.

(8) Conducting the first eligibility assessment interview.

a. All available evidence must be examined to detect potentially disqualifying issues.

b. The individual's need for advice, assistance or instructions must be determined and conveyed to the individual.

c. The interview must convey to the individual the requirements that must be satisfied to maintain eligibility.

d. This advice, assistance or instruction constitutes an understanding and agreement between the individual and the unemployment insurance representative at the conclusion of the interview regarding the individual's willingness and ability to eliminate any barriers to obtaining reemployment which otherwise would result in referral for adjudication.

e. The individual shall be advised of what constitutes an acceptable effort to obtain reemployment in accordance with state policy, with consideration for local labor market information and the individual's occupation.

f. The final objective of the interview is to determine whether a subsequent interview is needed. This determination shall be based on expected return to work date, job openings in the area, local labor market conditions, and other.

This rule is intended to implement lowa Code section 96.4(7).

lowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.2(1)e provides:

Procedures for workers desiring to file a claim for benefits for unemployment insurance.

(1) Section 96.6 of the employment security law of lowa states that claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the department prescribes. The department of workforce development accordingly prescribes:

e. In order to maintain continuing eligibility for benefits during any continuous period of unemployment, an individual shall report as directed to do so by an authorized representative of the department. If the individual has moved to another locality, the individual may register and report in person at a workforce development center at the time previously specified for the reporting.

(1) An individual who files a weekly continued claim will have the benefit payment automatically deposited weekly on a debit card specified by the department.

(2) The department retains the ultimate authority to choose the method of reporting and payment.

Each week a claimant files a claim for benefits he must be able to and available for work. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). To maintain continued eligibility, a claimant shall report as directed by an authorized representative. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.2(1)e. A claimant who fails to report as directed by notice mailed to the claimant is deemed unavailable for work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(11).

If the department identifies a claimant who is likely to exhaust benefits, in order to be eligible for weekly benefits a claimant must report as directed to participate in reemployment services. lowa Code § 96.4(7). Unemployment insurance rules require a claimant to participate in reemployment services when referred by the department unless the claimant establishes justifiable cause for failure to participate or the claimant has previously completed such training or services. lowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.6(6). Failure by the claimant to participate without justifiable cause shall disqualify the claimant from the receipt of benefits until the claimant participates in the reemployment services. Id. Justifiable cause for failure to participate includes an important and significant reason which a reasonable person would consider adequate justification in view of the paramount importance of reemployment to the claimant. Justifiable cause includes when the claimant is scheduled for an employment interview, is verified return to work, or both prior to the scheduled appointment or service. Id. The claimant shall contact the agency prior to the scheduled appointment or service to advise the department of the justifiable cause. Id. Failure to report for the appointment, failure to contact the agency prior to the scheduled appointment or service to advise the department of the justifiable cause for missing the appointment, or failure to have justifiable cause for failing to report for the appointment means the claimant has failed to meet the availability requirements of the law. Id.

The claimant was informed of the date and time of the telephonic RESEA appointment and on February 26, 2024, he emailed his career planner requesting to have the appointment rescheduled. The career planner promptly responded with a new date and time for the telephonic appointment. The claimant chose not to check his email for several days and he failed to attend the rescheduled appointment on March 1, 2024. The claimant did not notify lowa Workforce Development of the reason he failed to report as directed. The claimant failed to present justifiable cause for his failure to report as directed for a reemployment services appointment. As a result, the claimant is denied benefits effective February 25, 2024.

DECISION:

The March 4, 2024 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant has not provided justifiable cause for having failed to report for a reemployment services appointment. Benefits are denied effective February 25, 2024, and continuing until the claimant reports and participates as directed.
