SHANE L HILDEBRAND Claimant

APPEAL 22A-UI-16676-DS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

ACCU STEEL INC Employer

> OC: 07/31/2022 Claimant: Appellant (1)

lowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting lowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) – Voluntary Quit lowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 29, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated August 24, 2022, (Reference 03) that denied benefits based upon a finding that the claimant quit the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 3:00 p.m. on October 6, 2022. The claimant participated personally and with witness Marilyn Hildebrand. The employer participated through John Klehn, General Manager. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant worked for this employer from April 18, 2022, until August 2, 2022, when he quit the employment. The claimant was a full-time General Laborer, reporting to Robert Swanson. Due to the claimant's desire to work on his feet less than otherwise called for by the job, the employer tried to give the claimant as much work that called for a sitting position as possible. However, the options for such work were limited in the claimant's position. On August 2, 2022, the claimant advised the employer that he was not able to do the work he had been hired to do. The claimant presented the employer with a note from a physician advising that he could not do the work. The claimant did not request any leave or accommodations. Continuing work was available had the claimant not quit the employment, and his job was not in jeopardy.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

lowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to lowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving lowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (lowa 1980).

The claimant has not met his burden in demonstrating a good cause attributable to the employer for the quit. Rather, the claimant felt that his physical limitations made the work difficult, and he did not feel that the employer had sufficient work for him that did not involve standing on his feet. This is not a good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The August 24, 2022, (Reference 03) unemployment insurance decision denying benefits is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible.
