Section 96.4-3 – Eligibility for Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Cassandra R. Drost filed a timely appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated October 18, 2005, reference 02, which held her ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits upon a finding that she was not medically able to perform work. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held November 15, 2005 with Ms. Drost participating. This matter is considered on a consolidated record with 05A-UI-11147-AT.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Cassandra R. Drost was injured in an automobile accident on September 9, 2005. As of the date of this hearing, she has not been released by her physician to return to work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The question is whether the claimant meets the eligibility requirement of being medically able to work. She does not.

Iowa Code section 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

The claimant's testimony establishes that she has not yet been released to return to work. Benefits must be withheld until such time as the claimant provides medical documentation to the Agency that she has been released to return to work.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated October 18, 2005, reference 02, is affirmed. The claimant is ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits at this time.
