APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-11888-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/26/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated December 12, 2023, (reference 01) which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on January 10, 2024. Claimant participated. Employer participated by hearing representative Barbara Buss and witnesses Chas Wiepert and Jeff Buxton. Employer's Exhibits 1-9 were admitted into evidence.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer?

Whether claimant is able and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on March 30, 2023. After that time claimant was on leave for an extended period. Although claimant went on leave at the end of March, she did not have back surgery until October 30, 2023. She had her leave extended multiple times during this period.

After her back surgery, claimant stated that she was told by her doctor that it would be another six months to a year before she would be able to return to work. She reported this to employer.

Employer kept in contact with claimant while she was on leave, and had her leave extended multiple times. Employer stated that they did save claimant's job throughout her time on leave. On November 21, 2023 claimant called employer to quit her employment, as she was to be off from work for at least six more months and claimant was trying to get some sort of government assistance.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

The administrative law judge holds that claimant's quit was not for good cause attributable to employer. Employer kept working with claimant for an extended period beyond when claimant had leave available. Claimant simply was not and continues not to be able and available for work. She did voluntarily quit her employment. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated December 12, 2023, reference 01, is affirmed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
