Claimant

APPEAL 22A-UI-12139-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

PREMIER EMPLOYEE SOLUTIONS LLC
Employer

OC: 04/10/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(4) – Intolerable working conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the May 5, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon her voluntary quit. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 29, 2022. Claimant, Teresa Obert, participated and testified. Employer, Premier Employee Solutions LLC, participated through Rhonda Pencak and Tiffany Knisfen.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct or voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed beginning December 15, 2021 full-time as an assembler. Claimant's last day worked was Tuesday, April 5, 2022 when her assignment ended at Sonoco. On April 5, claimant received a text message from her supervisor. She was informed that her assignment ended at Sonoco due to an altercation. Claimant was also told in person not to show up to work again. The claimant then made a request to Premier Employee Solutions LLC not to assign her for another assignment stating that she did not want to work with the company again. Claimant made this statement to George at Premier Employee Solutions LLC on April 14, 2022. No job assignment was offered to the claimant. Had claimant requested another job, one was available to her through Premier Employee Solutions LLC.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(21) The claimant left because of dissatisfaction with the work environment.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The May 5, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Benefits are denied.
