APPEAL 24A-UI-03757-S2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/10/24
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the April 3, 2024, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon his voluntary quit. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on April 30, 2024. Claimant Jon Boeding participated and testified. Employer PPG Architectural Finishes did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time of the hearing and did not participate.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed full-time as an account development manager from January 2023, until March 31, 2024, when he quit.

On or around March 8, 2024, employer placed claimant on a performance improvement plan and gave claimant until March 31, 2024, to reach his account goals that he was failing to meet. If claimant did not meet the numbers on March 31, 2024, claimant believed employer would discharge him. Claimant worked on obtaining large industrial accounts that could take up to one year to close the deal, and claimant's workload at the time he was placed on the plan was such that he did not believe it was possible for him to meet his numbers in three weeks. Claimant also worked on obtaining architectural paint clients, and while those did not take as long to land, they were not as lucrative, so he did not believe he could meet the sales goals with those customers alone in that period.

On March 31, 2024, claimant had not met his goal and resigned effective immediately. At the time he submitted his resignation, claimant had not been discharged from employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(27) The claimant left rather than perform the assigned work as instructed.

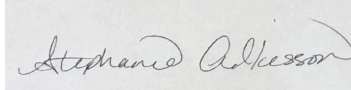

(28) The claimant left after being reprimanded.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

Claimant's written resignation is both evidence of his intention to sever the employment relationship and an overt act of carrying out his intention. Claimant was not discharged from his employment. While claimant believed employer would discharge him because he did not meet the goals outlined in his performance improvement plan, employer did not tell claimant he was discharged. Claimant resigned without advance notice. While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The April 3, 2024, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Unemployment insurance benefits funded by the State of Iowa are denied until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times their weekly benefit amount after the March 31, 2024 separation date, and provided they are otherwise eligible.
