(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96 5-2-a – Discharge for Misconduct
Section 96.3-7 - Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Des Moines Independent Community School District (employer) appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated November 2, 2004, reference 01, which held that Leon Foster (claimant) was eligible for unemployment insurance benefits. Administrative Law Judge Renegar conducted an initial hearing on this matter in appeal 04A-UI-12068-RT in which benefits were denied. The claimant appealed the decision indicating he did not participate due to lack of notice. The Employment Appeal Board remanded for a new hearing in an order dated January 5, 2005. After hearing notices were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on January 26, 2005. The claimant participated in the hearing with Attorney Robert Wright Jr. The employer participated through Cathy McKay, Risk Manager. Claimant's Exhibit's A through C were admitted into evidence.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The Findings of Fact set forth in the decision in appeal 04A-UI-12068-RT are adopted and incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

The claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits effective October 17, 2004 and has received benefits after the separation from employment in the amount of $2,181.00.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Reasoning and Conclusions of Law of the administrative law judge in appeal 04A-UI-12068-RT are adopted and incorporated herein as if set forth at length.

Iowa Code section 96.3-7 provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

Because the claimant's separation was disqualifying, benefits were paid to which the claimant was not entitled. Those benefits must be recovered in accordance with the provisions of Iowa law.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated November 2, 2004, reference 01, is reversed. The claimant is not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits because he was discharged from work for misconduct. Benefits are withheld until he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible. The claimant is overpaid benefits in the amount of $2,181.00.
