ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/20/22
Claimant: Appellant (1R)

Iowa Code Section 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code Section 96.1A – Partial Unemployment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 5, 2022, Cutty Bell (claimant) filed a late appeal from the April 15, 2022 (reference 01) decision that denied benefits effective March 20, 2022, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was not partially unemployed within the meaning of the law. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on June 17, 2022. Claimant participated. The employer did not comply with the hearing notice instructions to call the toll-free number at the time of the hearing and did not participate. The hearing in this matter was consolidated with the hearing in Appeal Number 22A-UI-11441-JT-T. Exhibit A, the online appeal, was received into evidence. The administrative law judge took official notice of the following Agency administrative records: the reference 01 and 02 decisions, DBRO, KCCO, WAGE C, and the reference 01 fact-finding materials.

ISSUE:

Whether the appeal was timely. Whether there is good cause to treat the appeal as timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

On April 15, 2022, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the April 15, 2022 (reference 01) decision to the claimant's Des Moines last-known address of record. The reference 01 decision denied benefits effective March 20, 2022, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was not partially unemployed within the meaning of the law. The reference 01 decision stated the decision would become final unless an appeal was postmarked by April 25, 2022 or was received by the Appeals Section by that date. The weight of the evidence indicates the claimant received the reference 01 decision in a timely manner, prior to the deadline for appeal. The claimant testified he was dealing with multiple "tragedies" at the time. The claimant cites his nephew's passing. The claimant also cites his mother's passing in 2021. The claimant did not take steps to file an appeal from the reference 01 decision by the April 25, 2022 appeal deadline.

On April 28, 2022, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the April 28, 2022 (reference 02) decision to the claimant's Des Moines address of record. The reference 02 decision stated the claimant was overpaid $1,254.00 for 3 weeks between March 20, 2022 and April 9, 2022, based on the April 15, 2022 decision that denied benefits. The reference 02 decision included a May 8, 2022 appeal deadline.

On May 5, 2022, the claimant completed and transmitted an online appeal from the reference 02 decision. The Appeals Bureau received the appeal on May 5, 2022 and treated it as also a late appeal from the reference 01 decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten-day deadline for appeal begins to run on the date Workforce Development mails the decision to the parties. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the Agency representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

An appeal submitted by mail is deemed filed on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it was received, or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(a). See also Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983). An appeal submitted by any other means is deemed filed on the date it is received by the Unemployment Insurance Division of Iowa Workforce Development. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(b).

The evidence in the record establishes that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). One question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the division after considering the circumstances in the case. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2)(c).

The evidence in the record establishes an untimely appeal from the April 15, 2022 (reference 01) decision. The evidence establishes that the claimant received the reference 01 decision in a timely manner, had a reasonable opportunity to file an appeal by the April 25, 2022 appeal deadline, but unreasonably delayed filing the appeal to May 5, 2022. The late filing of the appeal was not attributable to the Iowa Workforce Development error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. There is not good cause to treat the late appeal as a timely appeal. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2). Because the appeal was untimely, administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to disturb the decision from which the claimant appeals in the present matter. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal from the April 15, 2022 (reference 01) decision was untimely. The decision that denied benefits effective March 20, 2022, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was not partially unemployed, remains in effect.

REMAND:

This matter is REMANDED to the Investigations & Recovery Unit with the recommendation that the Unit determine the claimant's actual wages versus reported wages for the benefit years beginning March 22, 2020, March 21, 2021, and March 20, 2022 to determine whether the claimant intentionally underreported wages in each benefit year.
