APPEAL 22A-UI-13242-AW-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/17/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the May 16, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits finding claimant was discharged on April 4, 2020 for excessive unexcused absenteeism. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on August 9, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Crystal Thoe, Administrator, and Stephanie Gilbertson, Human Resources Coordinator. No exhibits were admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record

ISSUES:

Whether claimant's separation was a discharge for disqualifying job-related misconduct or a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to employer.

Whether claimant was able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant began her employment as a full-time Charge Nurse with ABCM Corporation on December 16, 2020. From December 16, 2020 until March 31, 2022, claimant had a two-week rotating schedule. Claimant had work-related childcare so that she could work the rotating schedule. Effective April 1, 2022, employer changed claimant's schedule in such a way that there was no rotating pattern. Claimant did not have childcare to accommodate this new schedule. On April 4, 2022, claimant notified employer that she could no longer work as a full-time Charge Nurse and requested to be changed to PRN status effective immediately due to the change in her work schedule.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) provides: An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, if the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W. 2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992).

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). The standard of what a reasonable person would have believed under the circumstances is applied in determining whether a claimant left work voluntarily with good cause attributable to the employer. O'Brien v. Employment Appeal Bd., 494 N.W.2d 660 (Iowa 1993).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(1) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(1) A change in the contract of hire. An employer's willful breach of contract of hire shall not be a disqualifiable issue. This would include any change that would jeopardize the worker's safety, health or morals. The change of contract of hire must be substantial in nature and could involve changes in working hours, shifts, remuneration, location of employment, drastic modification in type of work, etc. Minor changes in a worker's routine on the job would not constitute a change of contract of hire.

On April 4, 2022, claimant discontinued her employment as a full-time Charge Nurse with ABCM Corporation. This is considered a voluntary quit notwithstanding claimant's request to go to PRN status. Claimant quit her employment as a full-time Charge Nurse, because employer substantially changed claimant's work schedule such that claimant no longer had work-related childcare. This constitutes good cause attributable to employer. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

The next issue to be determined is whether claimant is able to and available for work. For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(8) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(8) Where availability for work is unduly limited because of not having made adequate arrangements for child care.

Claimant has work-related childcare to accommodate the two-week rotating schedule she had with employer during her employment until employer changed claimant's work schedule. Claimant has established that she is able to and available for work. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The May 16, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. Claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer. Claimant is able to and available for work. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
