OC: 01/08/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 7, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated January 30, 2023, (Reference 01) that denied unemployment insurance. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 2:00 p.m. on February 21, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Lynsi Pearson, Payroll Administration. No exhibits were offered or admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant worked as an Agent for this employer from July 5, 2021, until December 16, 2022, when he voluntarily quit the employment. The claimant last worked on November 2, 2022, and was thereafter on an unpaid leave period as he sought treatment for a non-work-related health condition. The claimant was scheduled to return to work on December 13, 2022. The employer has a policy allowing employees to advise the employer of an absence any time during the day of the shift that will be missed. The claimant missed his shifts on December 13, 2022, December 14, 2022, and December 15, 2022, without notifying his employer of any reason or excuse. The claimant felt he could not perform the essential functions of his job, so he did not report to work during this time. His job was not in jeopardy. Continuing work was available had the claimant not quit.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

It is the duty of the administrative law judge, as the trier of fact, to determine the credibility of witnesses, weigh the evidence and decide the facts in issue. Arndt v. City of LeClaire, 728 N.W.2d 389, 394-395 (Iowa 2007).

The administrative law judge may believe all, part or none of any witness's testimony. State v. Holtz, 548 N.W.2d 162, 163 (Iowa App. 1996). In assessing the credibility of witnesses, the administrative law judge should consider the evidence using his or her own observations, common sense and experience. Id. In determining the facts, and deciding what testimony to believe, the fact finder may consider the following factors: whether the testimony is reasonable and consistent with other evidence you believe; whether a witness has made inconsistent statements; the witness's appearance, conduct, age, intelligence, memory and knowledge of the facts; and the witness's interest in the trial, their motive, candor, bias and prejudice. Id.

The claimant essentially abandoned the job. His health condition was non-work-related, and he had been granted an extended, unpaid leave to seek treatment for it. When scheduled to return, the claimant did not return and did not contact the employer. This administrative law judge is not persuaded that the claimant does not know when or why he was separated from the employment or that the separation occurred much earlier than the December 16, 2022, date the employer provided to the Department. The employer credibly testified that the claimant simply did not report to work or notify the employer. The claimant has shown no good cause for quitting attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The January 30, 2023, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision denying benefits is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
